Jack B.

April 19, 1943.

My dearest Lois,

I am very sad today and the band is playing our march and that makes me feel all the worse.

The old saying is, when people write ^{in me} a ~~annual~~, they write the best things about you but Lois every thing I know about you is good and please blame me.

I've always thought you to be the prettest and sweetest friend I've ever had. I wish we could have met long before we did.

Lois don't forget the time when Jean, you and I went to Osheville. I really had a good time. Didn't you? I know you can't ~~remember~~ ^{forget} our days at Kelko, those days I can never forget. (And then there are some things I can't mention, you know what I mean, for example, this past week. Maybe it will all come out in a wash, for you and me both.)

When you leave for Washington this summer remember I am still going to be here thinking a lot about you.

Darling here's wishing you the best of every thing in life for a girl like you really deserves it.

A friend always and for ever.
I Love You
Dot Shipman

Lais,

I think you wrote about 2 lines in my annual, but never fear darling I'm gonna take up a lot of space in yours. I know you won't want me to, so if you want to, you can take it out with that wonderful invention of Helen's. Weren't it Clara?

Lais I know I'll always remember
you. After all, we grew up together.
At least you did, I don't think I'll ever really grow up.

Always remember the fun we've had, "Sub Sub" parties, those picnics, and our own private little "parties",
or would you call it parties?

Remember the night I cried on your shoulder. (More fun!) Lais, I've always felt free to pour out my heart to you and tell you all my troubles. You're always so willing to listen. To me you're sorta like a big sister only much nicer.
Believe me! Thanks loads for listening to me all those times when I was moaning so low. I don't know how I could have made it without you.
Be good - I'll see you in Washington.

Gwen

Dear Lois,

I have enjoyed coming up thru school with you. We have been together ever since the first grade, and I have enjoyed every year. Especially remember the good times we had in the plays we were in. This is the third since we've been in high school.
Lots of luck, happiness, and success
all those life - Bill Walker

Hi Lois,

Sweet thing, and you are a sweet, I love you now and I always will. I envy your beautiful blond hair. Really! Always remember the small times we had in high school. Football games, etc. Miss gamma had some more small times when we got to Washington
Love, Hazel

Dear Sis,

We are like some sisters - we have always been placed together - and you very seldom see me and unless the other one is in
we have had some fun
I know we've missed a lot - but but that at one time or the I guess we can look over that we have had some fun
sisters I'm wishing you life goes - I have a good time in I've been having a good one in we will think of each other. Good wishes for a very bright future. My wish is that all your wishes do come true - Good luck in your home affairs.
Love sister to sister
Billie

Lois, I think you are mighty fine but you would have to be that way to have such a fine brother. - D. "Ces" you have - a very successful and long, long life -
With love - Mrs J. J. Snipes

Alma Mater

On the city's western border,
Reared against the sky,
Proudly stands our Alma Mater
As the years go by.

Chorus:

May it ever be our watchword,
Conquer and prevail,
Hail to thee, our Alma Mater,
Dear ole Marion, Hail.

When we from our homes have parted,
And life's battle's on,
May thy spirit ever guide us
Till eternal dawn.

Dearest Lois,
It's been a great pleasure knowing you all these years. We've had lots of fun, and I'll never forget such a pretty and sweet girl.

I wish you all the happiness possible.
Lots of love & luck,
Auntie

Lois, I think you have a sweet disposition, and I'm sure you will find lots of happiness in life.
"Dan"

Lois,
I have enjoyed knowing such a nice girl.
Always keep your personality and you will have a lot of friends. Don't forget our Shorthand Class. Remember when I used to play for the Chess Leaders? I always enjoyed it. (I'm hoping your life will always be happy and successful. I know it will. Love, Auntie Jane

FOREWORD

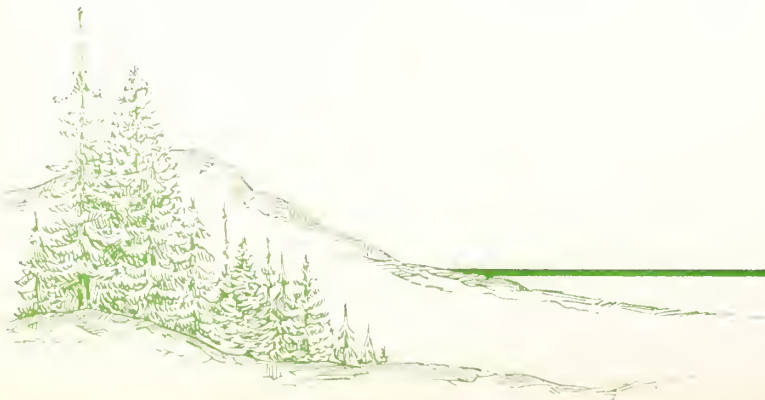

IF WE have preserved in these pages some scenes you would like to keep;

If this Book brings back to you some blessed memory of past associations;

If the HYLANDER ever brings you face to face with an old school chum and renews a friendship which time so often dims;

If we have preserved for you the memories of that unsettled school year of 1942-1943 when several members of the faculty and of the student body were called into the armed forces of this nation and each of us sacrificed willingly to uphold and preserve the ideals of Our Beloved Country;

If we have achieved these aims, then our efforts have been successful.

DEDICATION

"O BEAUTIFUL for heroes prov'd in liberating strife, who more than self their country loved, and mercy more than life."

With sincere admiration we, the HYLANDER Staff, respectfully dedicate this book to all the members of our alumni and our faculty who are now in the armed forces of the United States. Their bravery and self-sacrifice will live with us forever, and we shall always think of them as true heroes of Marion High.

*" . . . think only this of me;
That there's some corner of a foreign field
That is forever' America."*

LOUIS GUY FLACK, member of the Class of 1941, was born February 22, 1923, and gave his life October 26, 1942, while performing his duty aboard an aircraft carrier of the United States Navy in action in the Solomon Islands.

Guy was active on Marion High's sports teams and will long be remembered for his splendid ability on the basketball court.

A keen sense of sportsmanship, faithfulness to duty, bravery in battle—because Guy cherished these ideals, we shall honor his memory.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

IT WAS in the bright, sunny September of 1939 that the majority of the graduating class of '43 entered high school as freshmen. Being freshmen we thought everyone was looking at us and felt we could do nothing right. During the winter our school building burned and we had to go to school in the churches.

With the green worn off we returned the following year feeling more like true students of the high school as now there was a class below us. This year was spent rushing from one place to another, for we still could not occupy our school building. The Byrd twins and Von Ray Harris began their careers as stars on the football and basketball teams. The officers who led us through one of our most successful years in high school, our sophomore year, were: Jack Byrd, president; J. B. Walker, vice-president; Swanny Ricks, secretary, and Libby Seagle, treasurer.

One really begins to familiarize himself with the inside workings of school when he becomes a junior. We realized this when we entered our tenth school year. In Band, on the Marionette and HYLANDER staffs the juniors were doing their part. We had charge of the King and Queen Contest from which both fun and proceeds were huge. Then in the spring of '42 we gave our first great dramatic success, "Red-Headed Stepchild." Following this, the next highlight of the year was our Junior-Senior Banquet. Sophia Justice and J. B. Walker were elected to the Marion Chapter of the National Honor Society. This distinction is one of the greatest honors that can be bestowed on any high school student.

The following year, after three years of hard work, we came back to take our places as "dignified" seniors and leaders of our school. Due to the war situation there were many changes in our class and faculty. But with J. B. Walker as president, Sara Laughlin and Swanny Ricks as vice-presidents, and Libby Seagle as secretary and treasurer we soon became adjusted to these changes.

During our senior year Elaine Bowman, Swanny Ricks, Bonnie Kirby, Opal Trinks, Lucille Huffman, Violet Cuthbertson, Helen Smarr, John McCarthy, Ted Mace, and Wayne Jarrett were elected to the Honor Society.

Under the leadership of Coach Hugh Beam and his assistant Dan Hitchcock, our football team, made up largely of our senior boys, won the All-Conference Championship title.

Our class has added many stars to its service flag during the year. These stars represent: Fred Harris, Doyle Ayers, Dumont Chapman, Marvin Lovin, Joe Gaddy, Harold Hendley, Walter Maske, and Frank Fortune, who have joined the armed forces of our country.

Soon we will join the ranks of those in service as we bid farewell to dear old Marion High at our commencement exercises. Not all of us will have places in the armed forces, but we shall find ourselves men and women ready to plot a course in life which shall make America truly the land of the free and the home of the brave.

SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

LITTLE did I realize when I started my career as newspaper reporter for the New York Times that it would bring me in contact with so many of my former classmates. As a hobby, I have kept all the clippings of stories pertaining to my school days, and while on my vacation, by way of diversion, I dug these from my trunk.

Thumbing through these clippings the first thing that caught my eye was a huge picture of that glamorous movie star, Bonnie Kirby. Her latest production is "Somewhere I Found You." Incidentally, our own Frances Smith played a minor role in this sensational production.

Another picture that I noticed was that of Mary Jane Kluttz, famous singer at the Metropolitan Opera House. There was an article on the girl, Hazel Morrison, who simply rooted Gene Krupa out. Looking through the radio guide, I noticed that several of my old classmates had managed to make themselves famous—Mary Leonard and her orchestra are heard nightly over station P.U.N.K. Every Thursday night, one can pick up Tommy Gibson, the famous comedian, and Alvin "Slim" Wall and his "Rhythm Boys," who are capably taking the place of the "Carter Family." One article told of the outstanding work performed by Jean Ray while in the W.A.A.C.'s. Now that the war is over Jean is employed as stewardess on one of our ultra modern planes. Libby Seagle, also a former W.A.A.C. has settled down to school teaching.

In the sports section, is a write-up on James Byrd, football player for the Chicago Bears, and a whole page featuring Clarence Black's success as manager of the Boston Red Socks.

At the top of the society page of the New York Times whom should my eyes behold but our own attractive Swanny Ricks? Swanny has just returned from London, England, where she has been gathering material for her new book, "Post-War Etiquette Versus Pre-War Etiquette."

James Banks, one of Uncle Sam's pilots, flew General MacArthur to a memorial service held in Arlington, Virginia. Pansy Robinson, dietitian from New York, recently returned from a visit with her old friend, Bonnie Owenby, sole owner of a chain of 5 & 10c stores. A picture of Joyce Church caught my eye, and upon reading the article, I learned that she is a missionary in India. Mildred Davis is head nurse in the General Hospital in Hickory.

I had to part from my clippings long enough to answer the doorbell. It was the postman and among my mail was a letter from Louise Hensley, with whom I have been corresponding ever since high school days. Just think! Louise is one of Charlotte's most prominent doctors. She had recently paid a visit to Marion, where she found a surprisingly large number of our old classmates filling local positions. Among the Marion High School teachers are: Elaine Bowman, English teacher; Sara Laughlin, Home Ec. teacher; Mary Swann, Librarian, and the band director, none other than Harold Goodman. Annie Sue Pittman, Margaret Stevens and Virginia Younge are all efficient local secretaries. Louise was surprised to find Bill Walker owner of one of Marion's most popular theatres, the Oasis.

While on her visit, Louise called on Pauline Rowland, now married to her old high school beau, William Laughridge. Many of Marion's loveliest homes are graced by a number of Marion High's glamour girls basking contentedly in domestic life. Included among those so blissfully happy are: Margie Smith, Fannie Mae Snipes, Rilla Ferguson, and Virginia Emory.

Having finished Louise's letter, I again settled myself to my clippings, and read that T. W. McGalliard was still a lieutenant in the armed forces; Opal Trinks has been giving lectures on "Education"; Afton Lisenbee has twice won the Pulitzer prize for her poetry; Wilma Messer is putting her ability as an artist into practice by assisting Walt Disney with his cartoons; and Sara Jane Miller is having a marvelous time traveling around with her wealthy husband.

Deep down in the bottom of my envelope of clippings my eyes caught these headlines: "Painless Plastic Surgery Now A Certainty." A glance and I knew that Bill Gladden was the author of the article and that he had achieved the ambition of his youth, for he is now a famous surgeon in Johns Hopkins.

Once again I was interrupted. This time it was a special delivery letter from Margaret Good, athletic director at St. Mary's. She had loads of information as to the whereabouts of our classmates. Von Ray Harris after forcing the Japs from Australia, has settled down to live there on a sheep ranch. Darwin Willis still clings to his work in the navy as radio technician and likes it so much that he declares he will never be a landlubber again. James Parker is a dentist in Egypt; Dottie Hensley has a championship basketball team in Cuba; "Jo" Goins is a beauty operator in Des Moines, Iowa; Rachel Wilson is a florist in Kannapolis, N. C.

Before I could finish my letter, Ruth Smith bounced in with a magazine in her hand, and a smile on her face. Ruth is, of course, that model in New York, that every one envys. She tossed me the magazine with these words, "Look!" I did, and was I surprised? The cover girl was Louise Ramsey, voted by the Senior class to be the best looking. Ruth was simply bursting with information. She'd been shopping all day, and had run into Dorothy Shipman, and Etrula Akins, social welfare workers in Chicago. The three of them were so overjoyed at seeing each other that for a while they simply stood there stunned. Then, they headed for the nearest drug store, and chatted for half the afternoon.

Dorothy often sees Lois Watkins who is doing secretarial work in Washington, D. C. According to Lois, Lucille Huffman is manager of the S. & W. Cafeteria in Charlotte, N. C.; Robert Hawkins is a pastor of The Little Church Around the Corner in New York City; Violet Cuthbertson is a laboratory technician in Rio de Janeiro.

Etrula interrupted Dot to say that she often listens to Harold Murray, sports commentator; she understands that Paul Lusk is the head floor walker in a 5 & 10c store in Shelby; Doris Clayton is an operator in Clayton's Beauty Shop in Atlanta, Georgia; Jennings Ward is construction engineer of Cannon Mills Company in Boston.

It was a fight for time as Etrula talked a while and then Dot. Ruth was able to gather from the conversation, that John McCarthy is another Sherlock Holmes; Frances Jamison and Doris Tate are dress designers; Grace Reese is manager of Rose's 5 & 10c store in Charlotte, N. C.; Sudie Klontz is happily married to a successful farmer.

Ruth had just received a letter from Doris Anderson who lives in High Point where she teaches social dancing. Doris writes that she frequently runs into Margaret Ledbetter, owner of a dress shop there, and that Doris Miller is an excellent aviatrix in Baltimore, Md. Marguerite Clark is married and lives in Athens, Georgia; Pete Little is one of Athen's toughest cops; Annie Mae McCurry is an interior decorator; and Dan Robinson is owner of an airplane factory.

After Ruth finished telling me all the news, together we again rummaged through those clippings. This time we found that Margaret Fleming is secretary to the Governor of North Carolina, Jack Byrd and Joe Gaddy are still in the army.

Through an advertisement we learned that Marietta Burgin is owner of the Burgin Hardware in Winston-Salem, and that Martha McIver is proprietor of the McIver Dairies in Wisconsin. By the way, Floyd Broom is her manager.

We found quite a few pictures and articles of the champion tennis player, Helen Smarr. And everywhere we looked, we saw pictures of the famous musician, Wayne Jarrett.

Finally we finished, and dialed station M.H.S. Believe it or not, Red J. Walker was playing a trombone solo.

As a hint to the wise, may I suggest that collecting clippings as a hobby is an enjoyable as well as a profitable pastime.

ATHLETICS

THE RIPPERS WIN 1942 CONFERENCE CHAMPIONSHIP

Early in the fall of 1942, a bright future for the Marion High "Rippers" was forecast when Mr. Hugh Beam, our school superintendent, took over the squad with Mr. Dan Hitchcock as his assistant.

After three weeks of hard practice, the "Rippers" took on Newton's "Red-Devils" in a tight and hard-fought game. Marion scored in the second quarter, but Newton came back in the last half and tied the score 6-6.

One of the toughest games of the season was with Hickory. Hickory scored in the first two minutes of the game. In the second quarter one of the opponent's kicks was blocked and covered in the end zone, giving Marion a safety—two welcome points. On the next play Fred Harris carried the ball fifty-two yards for a touchdown. When the final whistle blew the "Rippers" led 15-13.

Success followed success. Next came the "game of all games" with the Morganton "Wild Cats." Not since 1929 had we been the victors. The game proved to be one of the most exciting and difficult games of the season. The first half was hard fought with neither team scoring. Morganton forged ahead in the third quarter with a beautiful pass that chalked them up six points, but Marion refused to give up. In the last quarter Fred Harris stood on the forty-yard line and hurled a pass to James Byrd who gathered it in beyond the last white stripes. 6-6! Intense silence fell as the crowd waited for the next play. Yes, it was good! The game ended with Marion leading, 7-6.

Perhaps we bragged too soon. All good things must come to an end. On October 23, Marion invaded Lenoir only to be counterattacked and driven out with a score of 25-6, the only defeat of the season.

Bouncing back from their defeat the previous week, the "Rippers" toppled the undefeated Lincolnton eleven in a 13-12 victory. Fred Harris in the first two plays of the game sliced off tackle and ran 82 yards for a touchdown. Lincolnton came back in the last half fighting like a dying animal, but Marion had them behind the eight ball.

On November 6, the "Rippers" using all the strength they possessed, out-classed the stubborn Canton team. Fred Harris ran sixty yards for a touchdown. Marion won 44-0.

The fast-moving "Rippers" were headed straight toward the Conference Championship.

On November 26, in Forest City the "Rippers" had to live up to their name by slashing and ripping their way into the Forest City line. We had all to gain or all to lose. Forest City proved to be more than we had bargained for. The last and most exciting score of the game came when Jim Bryson lateraled to Fred Harris who sprinted over. The game ended 27-6, Marion's favor.

Three boys on the team have an unusual and praiseworthy record—Von Ray Harris, J. B. Walker, and Ned Noblitt played every minute of every game.

The "Superlatives" chosen from the Championship Team were: Best Blocker, Von Ray Harris; Best All-Around player, Fred Harris; and Best Scrub, Eugene "Smokey" Smith.

Those getting letters this season by playing at least sixteen quarters in the games are: Doyle Ayers, Charles Ray Baker, Arthur Byrd, Jack Byrd, James Byrd, Jim Bryson, Fred Harris, Von Ray Harris, Harold Little, Ned Noblitt, Dan Robinson, Bill Walker, and J. B. Walker.

We know we are good, but we also know that a large part of our success goes to the following:

Mr. Beam and Mr. Hitchcock who somehow found time from the rest of their work to coach us;

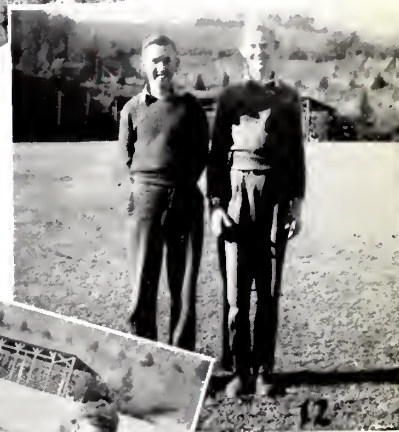

The student body who turned out at every game and gave their support;

The local supporters who were willing to sacrifice their gas to take the players to out-of-town games.

Dear Lois -
 Although I use not like you - I do now lots & lots. I think you are a swell girl and loads of fun. When you are in Washington this summer and you're "gixin' it" remember what I did time I'm having here in this dead town. Did I say I love you?
 Always - Louise

Lois,

Since everyone else is writing a page, I'll try to tell you enough to fill a page, but when I get started I doubt if I can stop.

We've had a swell time this year, haven't we? Shorthand, going to Asheville, and just lots of other things. I'll never forget the many adventures! we have had.

If you go to Washington, maybe we'll run into each other. But I doubt it - anyhow - write me when you go up there with your "southern accent" & "you all" and everything else that northerners make fun of. But, I still love the South, don't you?

I think you're swell, & I'll never forget you!

"Stay as sweet as you are - don't let a thing ever change you"

Lots of love,
Jean.
